

Lyli's burning passion as a writer, speaker, and mentor is to fuel a wildfire faith in the weary hearted. Her messages help women to LOVE DEEP: Fervently extend God's kindness and grace to pesky people.

PRAY BIG: Go down fighting on your knees with fire in your bones.

HOPE FULL: Stay tethered to a confident anticipation that keeps your heart ablaze.

STAND STRONG: Rest courageously on God's promises with red-hot resolve.

Lyli's heart comes alive when she is studying the Bible in community. She helps women transform their time in God's Word as a writer for Proverbs 31 Ministries' First 5 app. She also starts every weekday by digging into the Word verse by verse with thousands of women through LoveGodGreatly.com as a writer and mentor. Lyli regularly crafts devotional content for You Version for LoveGodGreatly.com and for her home church, Calvary Chapel Fort Lauderdale.

Lyli's messages are illuminated with wisdom forged from 30 years of experience mentoring students and fellow educators. She holds a BS in Speech Education, an MS in Educational Leadership, an MS in English Education, and an EdD in Curriculum and Instruction. Her dedication to helping people grow and learn serves her well in her current role as a Biblical Life Coach and Mentor.

Lyli grew up in Miami as the only daughter of hard-working padres who fled Communist Cuba. She practiced the skill of sweet talking in two languages and finally secured a Gringo husband a month before her 42nd birthday. A fireball at heart, she's energized by singing karaoke in the car with Bruce, digging into Bible study with the girls, and reading 12 books at a time.

Connect with Lyli at lylidunbar.com for further details and additional speaking topics. To book Lyli for your next event, contact her at lylidunbar@gmail.com.

God has blessed me greatly through the life of Lyli Dunbar. Whether in the words she writes or speaks, Lyli always brings a word to encourage and return us all to the truth of God's Word.

Lyli shares with a refreshing authenticity which infuses hope to move forward with courage. Her message, voice, and face are always joy-filled and will bring joy to any who hear her story.

Joanne, Massachusetts, Group Participant

speaking Topics:

A Beautiful Limp: Revealing God's Wonder through our Repurposed Weakness

Maybe you're like Lyli: she walks with a limp--not just physically, but in her heart. Has the weight of crippling circumstances broken your resolve? Sometimes we end up hobbling along, rather than running full throttle toward our destiny. Our Healer longs God transform our limps into a launching pad for His glory. Lyli unpacks how God strengthens our stride as we

- Surrender our weaknesses as a display case His sure-footed strength.
- Shake off the fears and doubts slowing down our progress.
- Step forward courageously with renewed resolve to reach the finish line.

Let's learn how to rise above our brokenness and pain to walk forward victoriously.

Overflowing Instead of Overwhelmed

Maybe like Lyli you have a load of unfolded laundry in the dryer, dust bunnies on your mantel, and difficult circumstances weighing heavy on your heart. How do we get past the crazy busy in our lives to find the abundant life we are promised in the Bible? Let's trace the steps of Jesus to discover how to soar instead of sink as we

- Linger in His presence to listen for the leading of the Spirit in a noisy world.
- Look for signs of beauty to set aside lament in the middle of a dry, barren season.
- Latch on to God's love and lay aside selfishness to lavish pesky people with grace.

Let's start living out of the overflow instead of drowning in the dregs.

How to Live Fully Present and Faithful

The phrase "fake it till you make it" is nowhere in the New Testament. If we are just going through the motions, and our heart is not fully in it, then we will never faithfully fulfill the purpose God has for our lives. Join Lyli as she unpacks how to turn duty into delight as we

- Find courage to love deep even when we don't feel like it.
- Learn to live alert rather than lagging behind and losing interest.
- Stop lingering on past defeats and start looking forward with hope

Let's live fully present and faithful instead of "phoning it in" and faking it.

Lyli speaks and writes from her heart. You feel like you could be sitting across the kitchen table sharing a cup of coffee or tea and just chatting - about life, God, hurricanes.... She is a wonderful writer, encourager, teacher and friend.

Jennifer, Texas
Group Participant

Lyli's servant heart, passion to teach God's Word and perseverance are clearly evident. She uses authentic story well to relate to people and point to Christ and the truth of His Word. Wisely she not only teaches the truth of Scripture but also shares how to practically apply the truth and brings it back to Jesus.

Laura Krokos, Colorado
Women's Coordinator, Master Plan Ministries
Hostess, missionalwomen.com

Lyli is thorough in her study, thoughtful in her preparation, and insightful in her delivery. Sitting at her feet is refreshing because she has obviously spent time at the feet of her Savior. Lyli is Spirit-filled and led.

Alyssa De Los Santos, Texas
Conference Speaker and Bible Teacher

lylidunbar.com
lylidunbar@gmail.com